

Central Plaza Hotel Public Company Limited

CENTEL participated in the CAC Certification Ceremony 2/2025, achieving its third consecutive CAC Certification and receiving the CAC Change Agent Award 2025 for the second consecutive year. These achievements reflect the Company's continued commitment to strong corporate governance and its steadfast dedication to combating corruption throughout the supply chain.

Central Plaza Hotel Public Company Limited (CENTEL), represented by Mr. Thaschai Phattanagosai, Assistant Vice President of Corporate Risk, Legal, and Sustainability received its third consecutive CAC Certification and its second consecutive CAC Change Agent Award 2025 at the CAC Certification Ceremony 2/2025 held on 24 November 2025.

As a role model for transparent business practices throughout its supply chain, the company has encouraged its business partners to join the Thai Private Sector Collective Action Against Corruption (CAC) in declaring their commitment to anti-corruption. This collective effort helps build trust and establishes a governance-driven framework for conducting business together, paving the way toward a sustainable supply chain.

SINCE 2019

SINCE 2022

SINCE 2024

CENTEL is committed to conducting business with integrity, transparency, and fairness, in alignment with the principles of good corporate governance and has a zero-tolerance policy for corruption in all forms and demonstrates its commitment to anti-corruption through its continued participation in, and certification by the Thai Private Sector Collective Action Against Corruption (CAC), as follows:

- Declared its commitment to the CAC on 1 September 2011
- Received its first CAC Certification on 22 April 2016
- Renewed its CAC Certification for the first time on 18 October 2019
- Renewed its CAC Certification for the second time on 30 September 2022
- Renewed its CAC Certification for the third time on 30 September 2025

In addition, CENTEL has been certified as a “CAC Change Agent” at the highest level (3 stars) since 2024 and successfully renewed this status in 2025. This recognition serves as strong evidence of the Company’s commitment to encouraging and supporting its subsidiaries, business partners, and stakeholders to operate with good corporate governance and to actively join the fight against corruption.

This certification further reinforces the Company’s and its group’s role in conducting business responsibly toward the community, society, the environment, and all stakeholders throughout the supply chain.

To clearly demonstrate this commitment, the Board of Directors has issued the Anti-Corruption and Bribery Policy, requiring executives, employees at all levels, and relevant parties to strictly adhere to and comply with the policy.
